Born: Monday, August 8, 1955

Died: Tuesday, April 6, 2021

Wade Cameron Beal, 65, Meyersdale. Died April 6, 2021 at Conemaugh Memorial Medical Center. Born in Cumberland, August 8, 1955 to the late John E. Beal and Helen L. (Layton) Beal. Preceded in death by brother, Mike Menser. Survived by his wife, Mary Schardt-Beal. Daughter, Alaina (Kody) Donaldson. Sons, Zachary Beal and Jared (Nicole) Beal. Grandchildren; Lorenzo Beal, Zachary Beal, Penelope Beal, Emmett Beal, Misa Beal, Kaia Beal, Katana Donaldson, Avayah Donaldson, and Kenzie Donaldson. Brothers, George Menser, and David Menser. Special fur-baby, Riley. Wade was a member of the Maple City Archers. He enjoyed car shows and was proud to take his restored 1965 Mustang to the shows. He loved to sing at weddings, on the 4th of July he sang the National Anthem at the Meyersdale Fire Works, and sang with the Johnstown Symphony Chorus. Wade was dedicated to his family, he retired in 2019 and enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren. Wade was a member of the Saint Philip and James Catholic Church. Wade was well known in the community for his kindness and thoughtfulness. Wade always made the best in whatever situation would arise, and he saw the best in everyone. He will be missed by all who knew him. The Funeral Service will be Private. A Memorial Service will be held at a later date. Arrangements by the M. Ray Leckemby Funeral Home.
